Sir,

Sub: - Non-remittance of LIC premium – employees becoming defaulters – requesting for suitable action - req.

We wish to bring the following to your kind notice for favour of expeditious action.

Kindly recollect the discussions that BSNLEU and the AUAB have already had with you on the subject. The LIC premium deducted from the salaries of the employees have not been remitted to the LIC, by the BSNL Management, from May, 2019 onwards. As a result, the employees have become defaulters. We have already brought to your kind notice that, this will create serious complications for the families of the deceased employees.

In this connection, we would like to give the following suggestion, to overcome the complications. BSNL is a valued customer for the LIC. The Company has taken a huge Group Insurance for it's employees from LIC. Further, the Pension Fund of BSNL is also being managed by LIC. Hence, utilising the stature of a valued customer of the LIC, BSNL can take up the issue of the belated remittance of LIC premium.

We suggest that, the BSNL Management can write to the Chairman of the LIC, requesting to bear with the delay for few months, to ensure that the employees do not become defaulters. If a formal request goes from BSNL Management, to the LIC management, BSNLEU will also take up the issue with the All India Insurance Employees Association (AIIEA), with a request to prevail upon their management, for accepting BSNL's request.

We hope that needful action would be taken expeditiously in this regard.

Thanking you,

Yours sincerely,

[P. Abhimanyu]
General Secretary
